

BENDER'S RYE WHISKEY

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.

Handcrafted With a Weather Eye

Bender's is a complex but accessible, small batch Rye Whiskey that is produced in an old Navy Brig on San Francisco's Treasure Island.

Created in honor of our first foray into the Big Apple the Bender's New York batch is our most complex whiskey to date. Made from 51% and 49% corn both aged for over 7 years, with a portion of corn whiskey aged for an additional 14 months in new Hoffmeister American oak barrels. We also aged a 13 year old corn that is part of the batch in French oak barrels made with Limousin oak. The whiskey's come from two different distilleries from the same region, but with different stills and different styles, making our New York batch a true modern whiskey mashup. With only 1002 bottles produced, you'll never have this experience again.

Coming in at 96 proof, our first NY batch boasts a rich mouth feel with a viscosity that shines through in a cocktail, leaving a rich stone fruit flavor with hints of vanilla and nutmeg. A spicy dry finish with sweet notes on the front of the palate makes this whiskey an excellent companion to traditional whiskey cocktails like the Manhattan and the Old fashioned but also great with a big cube that melts slowly.
